ST. CHRISTOPHER'S CHURCH ELECTORAL ROLL

Every six years St. Christopher's Church must compile a brand new Electoral Roll and existing members must re-apply. Our new Electoral Roll is currently being compiled and a letter has been sent out to all existing members with an application form, inviting them to re-apply.

Membership of the Electoral Roll gives members the right to attend our Annual Parochial Church Meeting, to ask questions about how the Church is servicing the community, and to make suggestions about how to move forward.

Anyone who is not currently on our Electoral Roll but who wishes to go on it can speak to Ann Ellis or contact the Parish Office for a form.

Application forms need to be returned by Sunday, 17th February.

NEWS FROM THE DIOCESE

TRANSFORMING LENT

SIGN UP NOW!

Make this Lent more prayerful and become confident disciples in daily life!

The Bishop's Lent Challenge this year will provoke, inspire and offer practical tips to help us grow as disciples of Jesus Christ using video interviews, email reflections and prayers. Themes range from 'Praying with the Psalms' to 'Getting started - creating space, place and time,' written by senior clergy from around the diocese. There's something for everyone.

Money raised during the Lent Challenge will be split between two charities: the Bishop of Guildford's Communities Fund (formerly BGF) and Church Missionary Society to support their work to bring hope and change to communities in DR Congo and Tanzania.

See the Diocese of Guildford website to find out more about the Lent Challenge and sign up for Lent Challenge materials.

SOUL SPACE DAY

Saturday, 23rd February

Church of St. Peter & St. Paul,
Church Street,
Godalming.
GU7 1ER

A day of quietness and creativity to restore the soul.

During the day time will be set aside to pause and reflect, to walk in nature and to work with art materials. No skills or particular artistic experience is necessary and all art materials will be provided.

You might like to bring a camera, suitable footwear and your own lunch. Drinks and cake will be provided.

For further information, visit the Diocese of Guildford website.

SURBITON COMMUNITY CLASSROOM

ART HISTORY COURSE

Surbiton High School is launching a community classroom initiative and offering a short course in Art History. The course will be delivered by Katie Lintott, Head of Art History at Surbiton High School.

The 12 week course will run on Mondays during term time for a nominal fee of £35.00 for adults and £5.00 for concessions.

For further information, or to register, contact: communityclassroom@surbitonhigh.com

O God, you know us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: grant to us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

1ST READING

ISAIAH 6:1-8

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. 2 Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. 3 And one called to another and said: 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.' 4 The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. 5 And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!' 6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. 7 The seraph[touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' 8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

2ND READING

1 CORINTHIANS 15:1-11

15 Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, 2 through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. 3 For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, 4 and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, 5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. 6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. 7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. 8 Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. 11 Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

GOSPEL READING

LUKE 5:1-11

5 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, 2 he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. 3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. 4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' 5 Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' 6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. 7 So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' 9 For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; 10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' 11 When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Go before us, Lord, in all we do with your most gracious favour, and guide us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name, and finally by your mercy receive everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS

We remember in our prayers all those in need, those who are housebound, and those who are ill, at home or in hospital. We pray especially for Helen Davison.
